Managers Notes

1. Attending League of Cities in Hollywood, Florida with Councilman Timothy Perry. Leaving 8/14 and returning 8/17. Made numerous contacts to meet while there.
2. Everything is set for the annual boat races this weekend. I will be back in time to attend.
3. Worked on next year's budget. I will have more details in the upcoming budget meeting.
4. I have been working on several grant opportunities. Attended DOT meeting in Ponce de Leon for a Beautification Grant which Apalachee Regional Development Council has been so kind to help facilitate. Also, grants for fire department equipment, completion of helicopter pad and several others, some of which Andrew Kael has pointed me to.
5. National Night Out seemed to be a success. Sneads City Hall participated and gave out goodies for the children.
6. Researching the viability of annexing ACI to the river bridge. I am meeting with a manager in Hollywood who has extensive experience in annexation.
7. ACI sewer contract has been tentatively approved which could bring in approximately $84,000 in additional revenue for water/ sewer fund. If the contract is completed in time could begin September 1.
8. Property Appraiser coming next week to Appraise all property and buildings for our insurance carrier.
9. I have a lunch meeting on 8/26 with the new Director of the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce, Director of the Jackson County Tourist Development Council, and the Director of the Jackson County Economic Development Council.
10. A ribbon cutting was conducted for a food pantry outside City Hall by Little Miss Sneads, Aria Fitzsimmons.
